

*Follow me on Facebook, Instagram and Pinterest too!

Card Instructions

*Note this is a standard size A2 card (5 ½" x 4 ¼")

1. The base of this card is Mint Macaron cardstock.
2. Cut a piece of Whisper White cardstock measuring 5" x 3 ¾."
3. Cut a piece of Basic Black cardstock measuring 4 ¾" x 3 ½". Rub an embossing buddy over the right half of the black cardstock, then using Versamark ink, stamp the lady holding the umbrella and the rain/snow drops and then heat emboss both with white embossing powder.
4. Adhere the stamped black sheet onto the Whisper White cardstock
5. Using Mint Macaron ink, stamp the sentiment "Wishing you brighter days to come" on a piece of Whisper White cardstock and then die cut using a stitched circle die. Cut off the bottom 1/3 portion of the circle.
6. Cut a piece of vellum measuring 3" x ½ and adhere to the center of the Basic Black cardstock
7. Using a pop dot, adhere the partial circle over the vellum.
8. Add a few rhinestones amidst the "snow."
9. Stamp the inside of the card and envelope as desired.

For a full list of supplies, please visit www.superstampgirl.com/blog/youre-snow-beautiful

DISCLAIMER: I am happy to provide FREE PDF's available to my readers. All items on this PDF including text, photographs, concept design and content are for your personal use, inspiration and enjoyment only and may not be copied for publication or contest submission of any kind. Should you wish to re-create my ideas please be sure to credit my name and original design. Thank you.